XIV.
LIMITATION UPON RIGHT OF OWNERS TO ALTER AND MODIFY CONDOMINIUM UNITS,
NO RIGHT TO ALTER COMMON ELEMENTS, SIGNS

A. No Owner shall cause any improvements or changes to be made on the exterior of any Unit or the building (including painting or other decoration, or the installation of electrical wiring, television or radio antennae or any other objects, machines or equipment which may protrude through the walls or roof of any Unit or building) or in any manner alter the appearance of the exterior portion of the building without the written consent of the Association being first had and obtained. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Subject to the Special Declarant Rights reserved to Declarant in this Declaration, no Unit Owner shall cause any object to be affixed to the Common Elements or in any manner change the appearance of the Common Elements without the written consent of the Association being first obtained. In the event the Association shall grant its consent for such improvements or changes to be made, such improvements, including but not limited to all antennae and other objects, machines or equipment which may protrude through the walls of the Units or roof of the building shall become and be deemed to be a part of the Unit to which they are affixed.

Unit Owners of the Units shall be entitled to place signage upon the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements adjacent to such Owner's Unit or above the main entry door of such Owner's Unit and may install painted signs or lettering upon the entry door of such Owner's Unit of an approved, uniform design and after obtaining the prior written consent of the Association. C. Declarant has exercised Special Declarant Rights and installed a security system for the common areas of the condominium only and is not obligated to provide security systems or monitoring for the Condominium Units. The Owner of each Condominium Unit is required to provide additional security systems and measures to adequately protect and monitor their Unit.

XV.
RIGHT OF ASSOCIATION TO ALTER AND IMPROVE COMMON ELEMENTS AND ASSESSMENT THEREFOR

Subject to Declarant's Special Declarant Rights, the Association shall have the right to make or cause to be made such alterations or improvements to the Common Elements which do not prejudice the rights of the Owner of any Condominium Unit in the use and enjoyment of his Condominium Unit, provided the making of such alterations and improvements are approved by the Executive Board of the Association and the cost of such alterations or improvements shall be Common Expenses to be assessed and collected from all of the Owners of Condominium Units. However, where any alterations or improvements are exclusively or substantially for the benefit of the Owner or Owners of a certain Condominium Unit or Units requesting the same, then the cost of such alterations or improvements shall be assessed against and collected solely from the Owner or Owners of the Condominium Unit or Units exclusively or substantially benefited, the assessment to be levied in such proportion as may be determined by the Executive Board of the Association.

XVI.

BY OWNERS OF CONDOMINIUM UNITS

Every Owner shall perform promptly all maintenance and repair work within his Condominium Unit which, if omitted, would affect the Condominium, either in its entirety or in a part belonging to other Owners, and every Owner shall be expressly responsible for the damages and liability which his failure to do so may endanger. The Owner of each Condominium Unit shall be liable and responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement, as the case may be, of all his air conditioning and heating equipment, stoves, refrigerators, fans or other appliances or equipment, including any fixtures and/or their connections required to provide water, heat, power, telephone, sewage and sanitary service solely to his Condominium Unit. Such Owner further shall be responsible and liable for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the exterior surfaces of any and all walls, ceilings and floors in the interior of his Unit including painting, decorating and furnishings, and all other accessories which such Owner may desire to place or maintain in his Condominium Unit. Whenever the maintenance, repair and replacement of any item for which the Owner of a Condominium is obligated to maintain, replace or repair at his own expense is occasioned by any loss or damage which may be covered by any insurance maintained in force by the Association, the proceeds of the insurance received by the Association shall be used for the purpose of making such maintenance, repair or replacement except that the Owner of such Condominium Unit shall be, in said instance, required to pay such portion of the costs of such maintenance, repair and replacement as shall, by reason of the applicability of any deductible provision of such insurance, exceed the amount of the insurance proceeds applicable to such maintenance, repair or replacement. Other than maintenance, repair and replacement arising from a casualty loss, Unit Owners shall be responsible and liable for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the glass surfaces of doors and windows, and door and window screens constituting a portion of the Limited Common Elements appurtenant to such Owner's Unit.

XVII MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF COMMON ELEMENTS BY THE ASSOCIATION

Subject to Declarant's Special Declarant Rights, the Association shall be responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the Common Elements, and all conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring and other facilities located in the Common Elements or in a Condominium Unit for the furnishing of utility and/or other services to the Common Elements or other Condominium Units. If any incidental damage is caused to any Condominium Unit by value of any work which may be done or caused to be done by the Association in the maintenance, repair or replacement of any Common Elements, the Association shall, at its expense, repair such incidental damage. Whenever the maintenance, repair or replacement of any item for which the Association is obligated to maintain, replace or repair at its expense is occasioned by any act of a Condominium Unit Owner, his tenants, guests or invitees, and such loss or damage may be covered by any insurance maintained in force by the Association, the proceeds of the insurance received by the Association shall be used for the purpose of making such maintenance, repair or replacement, except that the Unit Owner who is responsible for the act causing the damage (whether done by himself or his tenants, guests or invitees) shall be required to pay such portion of the cost of such maintenance, repair or replacement as shall, by reason of the applicability of any deductibility provision of such insurance, exceed the amount of the insurance proceeds applicable to such maintenance, repair or replacement. Whenever the maintenance, repair or replacement of any item for which the Association is obligated to maintain, replace or repair at its expense is occasioned by an act of a Unit Owner, his tenants, guests or invitees, and such loss or damage is not covered by any insurance maintained in force by the Association, the Unit Owner who is responsible for the act causing the damage (whether done by himself or his tenants, guests or invitees) shall be required to pay the cost of such maintenance, repair or replacement. Establishment of liability for damage caused by the Owner of a Unit or the Association is subject to the provisions of N.C.G.S. 47C-3-107(d).

XVIII.
AUTHORITY TO PURCHASE INSURANCE

All required or permitted insurance policies (other than title insurance and insurance on betterments and improvements to the Limited Common Elements, if any) upon the Property (other than the personal property of the Unit Owners) shall be purchased by the Association in the name of the Association, as Trustees for the Condominium Unit Owners and their respective mortgagees as their interests may appear, and shall provide for the issuance of certificates or memoranda of insurance to the Association and to any Unit Owner, mortgagee, or beneficiary of a deed of trust. Each Condominium Unit Owner may obtain insurance, at his own expense, affording coverage upon his Condominium Unit, his personal property and for his personal liability as may be permitted or required by law, and such insurance shall, if available, contain a waiver of subrogation as to any claims against Condominium Unit Owners, the Association and their respective servants, agents and guests.

DISTRIBUTION OF INSURANCE PROCEEDS

A. The following insurance coverage shall be maintained in full force and effect by the Association:

1. Casualty insurance covering the Common Elements and Units, including the building and all improvements upon the land and all personal property included within the Condominium, except such personal property as may be owned by the Condominium Unit Owners, shall be procured in an amount equal to at least eighty percent (80%) of the maximum insurable replacement value thereof (exclusive of land, excavation and foundations) as determined annually by the insurance company affording such coverage. Such coverage shall afford protection against: (a) loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by the standard extended coverage endorsement; and, (b) such other risks as from time to time customarily shall be covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use, including, but not limited to, vandalism and malicious mischief.
