The undivided interest of every unit owner in the common elements shall be proportionate to the total square footage of each unit as a percentage of the total square footage of the entire condominium: See attached "Exhibit B". The undivided interest in the common elements and the right and easement of enjoyment in such common elements are subject to the following:

- (a) the Association shall have the right to suspend the voting rights and right of use of any recreational facilities by an owner for any period during which any assessment against his unit remains unpaid; and for a period not to exceed 60 days for any infraction of its published rules and regulations;

Section 4: Any owner may delegate his right of enjoyment to the common elements to its tenants.

ARTICLE III

COVENANT FOR MAINTENANCE ASSESSMENTS

Section 1: The Declarant, for each unit owned within the Property, and each owner by acceptance of a deed therefor, whether or not it shall be so expressed in such deed, hereby covenants and agrees to pay the Association: (1) annual assessments or charges, and (2) special assessments for capital improvements, such assessments to be established and collected as hereinafter provided. The liability of each owner for the common expenses of the Association shall be as follows:

(a) Units A1 and A2 in Building A will have their own electricity meter and water meter. The electricity and water bills for Building A will be paid by the owners of Building A units in accordance with their respective utility bills.

(b) Building B will have three water services, and each unit in Building B will have its own electrical meter. The three water bills for Building B will be paid by the owners of Building B units in accordance with their proportional share of floor area of Building B. See attached "Exhibit B."

(c) All other CAM charges, including but not limited to insurance and landscaping, will be paid by unitowners in accordance with their proportional share of floor area in the condominium. See attached "Exhibit B".

Any assessment levied against a unit remaining unpaid for a period of thirty (30) days or longer shall constitute a lien on that unit when filed of record in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of New Hanover County and shall accrue interest at a rate set by the Association not to exceed 18% per annum. The Association may bring an action at law against the owner, or foreclose the lien against the Property. Fees (including attorneys' fees), charges, late charges, fines, and interest are also enforceable as assessments.

Each such assessment, together with interest, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees, shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the owner of such property at the time when the assessment fell due. The personal obligation for delinquent assessment shall not pass to his successors in title unless expressly assumed by them.

Section 2: The lien of the assessments provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any first mortgage and ad valorem taxes. Sale or transfer of any unit shall not affect the assessment lien. The sale or transfer of any unit pursuant to mortgage or tax foreclosure or any proceeding in lieu thereof, however, shall extinguish the lien of such assessments as to payments which became due prior to such sale or transfer. No sale or transfer shall relieve such unit from liability for any assessments thereafter becoming due or from the lien thereof.

Section 3: The annual assessments levied by the Association shall be used exclusively to promote the health, safety and welfare of the owners and tenants and in particular for the acquisition, improvement, insuring and maintenance of the condominium, services and facilities devoted to this purpose, and for the use and enjoyment of the common elements excluding HVAC systems which will be the unit owners' responsibility.

The Association may also levy a special assessment payable in a manner as specified by the Association for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of any construction, reconstruction, repair or replacement of a capital improvement upon the common elements, including fixtures and personal property related thereto, provided that any such assessment shall have the assent of a majority of the members.

Section 4: Until January 1 of the year immediately following the conveyance of the first unit to an owner, the maximum annual assessment shall be determined by the Board for each unit, prorated for the remainder of said year.

(a) From and after January 1 of the year immediately following the conveyance of the first unit to an owner, the maximum annual assessment may be increased effective January 1 of each year without a vote of the membership by up to five percent (5%) of the previous year's maximum annual assessment.

(b) From and after January 1 of the year immediately following the conveyance of the first unit to an owner, the maximum annual assessment for the next succeeding two (2) years may be increased above the increase permitted in Section 4(a), provided that any such assessment shall receive the affirmative vote of sixty percent (60%) of the of the ownership who are voting in person or by proxy, at a meeting duly called for this purpose. Written notice setting forth the purpose of such meeting shall be sent to all members not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days in advance of the meeting. No quorum shall be required.

(c) The board may fix the annual assessment at an amount not in excess of the maximum.

Section 5: Both annual and special assessments must be fixed at a rate based on each units percentage of ownership, for all units and may be collected on a monthly basis.

Section 6: The annual assessments provided for herein shall commence at a date established by the Association. Once such annual assessments are established, written notice of the annual assessment shall be sent to every owner subject thereto. The due dates shall be established by the board.

ARTICLE IV

PARTY WALLS

Section 1: The walls and flooring connecting adjacent units are "party walls" and are situated on or about the boundary line separating such units.

To the extent any duct, wire, conduit, or any other fixtures lies partially within and partially outside the designated boundaries of a unit, any portion thereof serving only that unit is a limited common element allocated exclusively to that unit, and any portion thereof serving more than one unit or any portion of the common elements is a part of the common elements, pursuant to G.S. 47C-2-102(2).

Any porches, patios and all other exterior doors and windows or other fixtures designated to serve a single unit but located outside the unit's boundaries are limited common elements allocated exclusively to that unit, pursuant to G.S. 47C-2-102(4).

Section 3: Each wall which is built as a part of the original construction of a unit and placed on the dividing line between the units shall constitute a party wall, and, to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this Article, the general rules of law regarding party walls and liability for property damage due to negligence or willful acts or omissions shall apply thereto.

Section 4: The cost of reasonable repair and maintenance of a party wall shall be shared by the owners who make use of the wall in proportion to such use.

Section 5: Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article, an owner who by his negligent or willful act causes a party wall to be exposed to the elements shall bear the whole cost of furnishing the necessary protection against such elements. Modifications negating code compliance must be repaired at owner's expense.

Section 6: The right of any owner to contribution from any other owner under this Article shall be appurtenant to the land and shall pass to such owner's successors in title.

Section 7: If any owner desires to sell his unit, such owner may, in order to assure a prospective purchaser that no adjoining unit owner has a right of contribution as provided in this Article IV, request of the adjoining unit owner a certification that no right of contribution exists, whereupon it shall be the duty of the adjoining unit owner to make such certification immediately upon request and without charges; provided, however, that where the adjoining unit owner claims a right of contribution, the certification shall contain a recital of the amount claimed.

Section 8: In the event of any dispute arising concerning a party wall, or under the provisions of this Article, such dispute shall be settled by arbitration as provided by the laws of North Carolina as then existing.

ARTICLE V

Section 1: In addition to maintaining the common elements, the Association shall provide exterior maintenance for each unit, subject to assessment hereunder, including the performance of the following, as needed: Paint, repair, replace and care of roofs, exterior building surfaces, trees, shrubs, walks, and other exterior improvements. Such exterior maintenance shall include exterior glass surfaces.

Section 2: In the event that the need for maintenance, repair, or replacement is caused through the willful or negligent act of an owner, his family, guests, invitees, or tenants, the cost of such maintenance, replacement, or repairs shall be added to and become a part of the assessment to which such unit is subject.

ARTICLE VI

ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL

Section 1: No building, fence, wall, or other structure or improvement shall be commenced, erected or maintained upon the condominium, nor shall any exterior addition or change therein be made until the plans and specifications showing the nature, kind, shape, height, materials, and location of the same shall have been submitted to and approved in writing by Declarant during the period of Declarant control or by the Board of Directors once the period of Declarant control expires.

The exterior color of a unit cannot be changed unless the color scheme of the entire condominium is similarly changed. Any such change requires the approval of sixty percent (60%) of the ownership at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present.

Section 2: Limitation of Liability. Neither Declarant nor the partners, officers, directors, employees and/or agents of Declarant shall be liable in damages or otherwise to any Owner by reason of mistake of judgment, negligence or nonfeasance arising out of or in connection with any submittal or resubmittal of Plans for review and approval under this Declaration. Without the prior written consent of Declarant, no Owner who submits or resubmits Plans may bring an action or suit against Declarant, or Declarant's partners, officers, directors, employees and/or agents to recover any such damages, and such parties hereby release, remise and quitclaim all claims, demands and causes of action for damages arising out of or in connection with any mistake of judgment, negligence or nonfeasance of Declarant or its or their partners, officers, directors, employees and/or agents relating to the review and approval, disapproval or failure to respond with respect to any Plans which are submitted or resubmitted under this Declaration; and such parties hereby waive all rights and entitlements they may have under any provision or principle of law which provides that a general release does not extend to claims, demands and causes of action not known at the time the release is given.

Section 3: No Liability for Design or Other Defects. The approval of any Plans under this Declaration by Declarant shall not impose any liability or responsibility whatsoever upon Declarant or its partners, officers, directors, employees and/or agents (i) with respect to the compliance or non-compliance of any such Plans, or any structures erected or installed in accordance therewith, with applicable zoning ordinances, building codes, signage ordinances, or other applicable governmental laws, ordinances or regulations or (ii) with respect to defects in or relating to the Plans, including, without limitation, defects relating to engineering matters, structural design matters and the quality or suitability of materials.
