(c) BUILDING AND SITE IMPROVEMENTS. No building, fence, wall, bulkheading or other structure shall be erected, placed or altered on any residential lot, nor shall the rate or elevation or physical characteristics including, but not limited to, slopes, ridges, and tree growth, of any such lot, or portion thereof, be altered in any way whatsoever, until the proposed building plans, specifications, exterior colors and finishes, including brick siding, etc., site and landscaping plans (showing the proposed location of such building or structure, drives, parking areas and proposed alterations to the grade, elevation or physical characteristics of the site), and construction schedule shall have been approved in writing by the Declarant. The site building setback line shall be a minimum of ten (10) feet from each side of each lot. In the event of any conflict between these guideline requirements and any less stringent requirement later imposed by any governmental authority, Declarant's guideline shall govern.

Since the establishment of standard inflexible building setback lines for location of houses on lots tends to force construction of houses both directly behind and directly to the side of other homes with detrimental effects on privacy, preservation of land contour, important trees and other vegetation, ecological and related considerations, variances, from these specific setback guidelines are permitted under these Restrictions in accordance with Paragraph 3 (b) herein above. In order to assure, however, that the foregoing considerations are given maximum effect, the Declarant reserves the right to control and approve absolutely the site and location of any house or dwelling or other structure upon any lot.

Such accessory building may not be constructed prior to the construction of the main building. No garage will be open from the front of a residence unless such a design is approved in writing by the Declarant. No building or other structure, or part thereof, at any time situate on such residential lots shall be used as a professional office or charitable, or religious institution, or for business or manufacturing purposes, or for any use whatsoever other than as a private residence. No apartment house or duplex shall be erected or placed on or allowed to occupy any residential lot and no residence shall be altered or converted into a duplex residence or apartment house thereon.

5. RESIDENTIAL USE. (a) All of the above described lots shall be used for residential purposes exclusively.

pay to BROOKS LANDING PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION an annual assessment or charge to be fixed, established and collected on a lot by lot basis as hereinafter provided. Said annual assessment or charge shall be due on January 1 of the year for which it is assessed, provided that the Association may make provision for payment thereof in installments. Each annual assessment or charge (or installment thereof) shall, when due, become a lien against the lot against which such assessment or charge is made.
