ARTICLE IV.

The Nature and Incidents of Unit Ownership

A. Each unit shall be conveyed and treated as an individual real property capable of independent use and fee simple ownership, and the owner of each unit shall also own, as an appurtenance to the ownership of each said unit, an undivided interest in the common areas and facilities of CEDAR PARK OFFICE PLAZA. The undivided interest in the common areas and facilities of CEDAR PARK OFFICE PLAZA appurtenant to each of the units of CEDAR PARK OFFICE PLAZA, is hereby established as shown on Exhibit 'D' attached.

The proportional interest in the common areas and facilities that is appurtenant to each unit has been determined in a manner consistent with the Act.

B. No unit may be divided or subdivided into a smaller unit or units than as shown on Exhibit "B" hereto, nor shall any unit or portion thereof be added to or incorporated into any other unit, unless written approval is first obtained from the Board of Directors of the Association as provided in Article V, Section D. hereof. The undivided interest in the common areas and facilities declared to be an appurtenance to each unit shall not be conveyed, devised, encumbered, or otherwise dealt with separately from said unit, and the undivided interest in common areas and facilities appurtenant to each unit shall be deemed conveyed, devised, encumbered, or otherwise included with the unit even though such undivided interest is not expressly mentioned or described in the instrument conveying, devising, encumbering, or otherwise dealing with such unit. Any conveyance, mortgage, or other instrument which purports to grant any right, interest, or lien in, to or upon a unit, shall be null, void and of no effect insofar as the same purports to affect any interest in a unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in common areas and facilities, unless the same purports to convey, devise, encumber, or otherwise trade or deal with the entire unit. Any instrument conveying, devising, encumbering, or otherwise dealing with any unit, which described said unit by the letter/numerical designation assigned thereto in Exhibit "B" without limitation or exception, shall be deemed and construed to affect the entire unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in the common areas and facilities. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting or preventing ownership of any unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in the common areas and facilities by more than one person or entity as tenants in common, joint tenants, or as tenants by the entirety.

C. The common areas and facilities shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be subject to a perpetual nonexclusive easement in favor of all of the owners of units in CEDAR PARK OFFICE PLAZA, for their use and the use of their immediate families, guests or invitees, for all proper and normal purposes, and for the furnishing of services and facilities for which the same are reasonably intended, for the enjoyment of said owners of units. Notwithstanding anything above provided in this Article, the Association shall have the exclusive right to establish the rules and regulations pursuant to which the owner of any unit, tenants, guests and invitees, may be entitled to use the common areas and facilities, including the right to make permanent and temporary assignments of parking spaces, and to establish regulations concerning the use thereof.

D. Recognizing that the proper use of a unit by an owner or owners is dependent upon the use of the common areas and facilities in common with the owners of all other units, and that it is in the interest of all owners that the ownership of the common areas and facilities be retained in common by the owners, it is hereby declared that the proportional undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to each unit shall remain undivided and no unit owner shall bring or have any right to bring any action for partition or division.

C. The use of common areas and facilities, by the owner or owners of all units, and all other parties authorized to use the same, shall be at all times subject to such reasonable rules and regulations as may be prescribed and established governing such use, or which may be hereafter prescribed and established by the Association.

D. No owner of a unit shall permit any structural modification or alteration to be made to such unit without first obtaining the written consent of the Association, which consent may be withheld in the event that a majority of the Board of Directors of the Association shall determine, in their sole discretion, that such structural modifications or alterations would adversely affect or in any manner endanger the condominium in part or in its entirety. No owner shall cause any improvements or changes to be made on the exterior of the condominium (including painting or other decoration, or the installation of electrical wiring, television or radio antenna or any other objects, machines or air conditioning units which may protrude through the walls or roof of the condominium) or in any manner alter the appearance of the exterior portion of any building without the written consent of the Association being first had and obtained. No unit owner shall cause any object to be fixed to the common areas and facilities (including the location or construction of fences and the planting or growing of flowers, trees, shrubs, or any other vegetation) or in any manner change the appearance of the common areas and facilities or limited common areas and facilities without the written consent of the Association being first had and obtained.

E. No signs of whatever nature and no window displays of whatever kind, except those specifically provided for herein. So long as the Declarant shall retain ownership of any units, it may utilize any such unit or units for sales offices, models or other usage for the purpose of selling units within said project. The Declarant may assign this limited commercial usage right to any other person or entities as it may choose; provided, however, that when all units have been sold, this right of commercial usage by the Declarant, its successors and assigns shall immediately cease. Each unit owner may:

(1) Place a decal upon the door of his unit, announcing the name and address of the owner or tenant, as the case may be, and all such decals shall be of such size, shape and design as to be compatible with other decals used in the project, and shall be approved by the Declarant prior to the use of same.

F. No animals, domesticated or otherwise, shall be kept or housed in any unit or the common areas or the improvements thereon, without the prior written approval of and only upon the conditions allowed by the Declarant or the Board of Directors of the unit owners association. In the event such permission is granted, the owner of any such animal shall be solely responsible for all actions of said animal.

G. No article shall be hung or shaken from the doors or windows of any unit, nor shall any item be placed or hung from any window sill or from any of the common areas.

H. No boats, boat trailers, campers, trailers, mobile homes, other recreational vehicles, or commercial vehicles of any nature shall be parked or stored on any of the parking areas or other common areas of the project, nor shall any such vehicle, boat or trailer ever be parked or stored within the right of way of any public street adjacent to or leading to the project.

B. Each unit owner shall have an easement in common with the other owners of all units to use all pipes, wires, ducts, cables, conduits, public utility lines and other common facilities located in any of the other units and serving his unit. Each unit shall be subject to an easement in favor of the owners of all other units to use the pipes, ducts, cables, wires, conduits, public utility lines and other common facilities serving such other units and located in such unit. The Board of Directors of the Association or their designee shall have the right of access to each unit to inspect the same, to remove violations therefrom and to maintain, repair, or replace the common facilities contained therein or elsewhere in the building.

E. Management and Maintenance:

1. The Association, as a common expense, shall be responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of all of the common areas and facilities, and limited common areas and facilities including those portions thereof which contribute to the support of the building or buildings, and all conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring, and other facilities located in the common areas and facilities for the furnishing of utility and other services to the units and said common areas and facilities, and should any incidental damage be caused to any unit by virtue of any work which may be done or caused to be done by the

1313 0314

Association in the maintenance, repair, or replacement of any common areas and facilities, the Association shall, at its expense, repair such incidental damage. Whenever the maintenance, repair and replacement of any item for which the Association is obligated to maintain, replace or repair at its expense is occasioned by any act of a unit owner, his guests, invitees or tenants, and such loss or damage may be covered by any insurance maintained in force by the Association, the proceeds of the insurance received by the Association shall be used for the purpose of making such maintenance, repair, or replacement except that the unit owner who is responsible for the act causing the damage (whether done by himself or by his tenants, guests, or invitees) shall be required to pay such portion of the cost of such maintenance, repair, and replacement as shall, by reason of the applicability of any deductibility provision of such insurance, exceed the amount of the insurance proceeds applicable to such maintenance, repair or replacement.

All the powers and duties of the Association necessary or convenient for such maintenance and management may be delegated to and vested in the manager by the Board of Directors, except such as are specifically required by this Declaration, the By-Laws, or the Unit Ownership Act, to have the approval of the Board of Directors or the Association. The manager is hereby further authorized to recommend the annual budget, and, upon approval thereof by the Board of Directors, make assessments for common expenses, and collect such assessments as provided in this Declaration and the By-Laws, subject always to the supervision and right of approval of the Board of Directors.

4. Unit Owners Maintenance:

Every owner shall perform promptly all maintenance and repair work within his unit which, if omitted, would affect the condominium, either in its entirety or in a part belonging to other owners; every owner being expressly responsible for the damages and liability which his failure to do so may engender. The owner of each unit shall be liable and responsible for the maintenance, repair, and replacement, as the case may be, of all air conditioning and heating equipment, refrigerators, fans, or other appliances or equipment, including any fixtures and/or their connections required to provide water, light, power, telephone, sewage and sanitary service to his unit. Such owner shall further be responsible and liable for the maintenance, repair, and replacement of the surfaces of any and all walls, ceilings, and floors which are a part of his unit, including painting, decorating, and furnishings, and all other accessories which such owner may desire to place or maintain in his unit. Whenever the maintenance, repair, and replacement of any item for which the owner of a unit is obligated to maintain, replace, or repair at his own expense is occasioned by any loss or damage which may be covered by any insurance maintained in force by the Association, the proceeds of the insurance received by the Association shall be used for the purpose of making such maintenance, repair, or replacement except that the owner of such unit shall be, in said instance, required to pay such portion of the costs of such maintenance, repair, and replacement as shall, by reason of the applicability of any deductibility provision of such insurance, exceed the amount of the insurance proceeds applicable to such maintenance, repair, or replacement. All glass doors, window frames, panes and screens are a part of the respective units and shall be maintained by the respective unit owners.

All parts of a unit shall be kept in good condition and repair by and at the expense of the owner. The unit shall be maintained by the owner in a clean and safe condition, free of nuisance. Each unit owner will promptly comply with any requirements of the insurance underwriters of the insurance for the common areas and facilities when so requested in writing by the Board or its designated agent. Any failure of an owner to repair, maintain, or replace as may be required pursuant to this Declaration, or a determination by the Board or its designated agent that such failure will endanger or impair the value of the common areas and facilities or any unit may be, upon written notice to the owner of the nature of the required repair, maintenance, or replacement, repaired or replaced by the Association at the expense of the unit owner, to be collected by special assessment as provided herein and in the By-Laws. Such assessment may include the cost to the Association incurred in the abatement of any nuisance maintained by the unit owner therein.

5. Limitation of Liability: Notwithstanding the duty of the Association to maintain and repair parts of the condominium property, the Association shall not be liable to unit owners for injury or damage caused by any latent condition of the property to be maintained and repaired by the Association, or caused by the elements or other owners or persons.

F. Insurance:

1. Acquisition: Insurance policies upon the condominium (other than title insurance) shall be purchased by the Association in the name of the Board of Directors of the Association, as Trustee for the unit owners and their respective mortgagees as their interests may appear, and shall provide for the issuance of certificates or mortgage endorsements to the holders of first mortgages on the units or any of them, and if the companies writing such policies will agree, the policies shall provide that the insurer waives its rights of subrogation as to any claims against unit owners, the Association and their respective servants, agents, and guests. Each unit owner may obtain insurance, at his own expense, affording coverage upon his unit, his personal property and for his personal liability and as may be permitted or required by law, but all such insurance shall contain the same waiver of subrogation as that referred to above if the same is available.
