Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting or preventing ownership of any Condominium Unit and its appurtenant undivided interest in the Common Elements by more than one person or entity as tenants in common, joint tenants or as tenants by the entirety, but there shall only be one vote for the unit. The Allocated Interests are subject to reallocation as provided in Section 14.7 below.

All costs incident to such action, including court costs and attorney's fees, shall be assessed against the Unit and Unit Owner involved, and shall become a lien against such Unit, to the same extent allowed under Article VII of this Declaration.

- (n) Structural Modifications and other Modifications. Without the prior written consent of the Association, no Unit Owner shall permit any structural modification or alteration to his Unit. No Unit Owner shall cause any modifications or alterations to be made to the exterior of the Condominium, including painting or other decoration, or the installation of electrical wiring, television or radio antennae, machines or air conditioning units, which may protrude through the walls or roof of the condominium, or in any manner alter the appearance of the exterior portion of any building without the written permission of the Association being first obtained. No Unit Owner, except the Declarant during the Declarant Control Period, shall cause any object to be fixed to, constructed on, or removed from the common areas and facilities (including the location of fences and the planting or growing of flowers, trees, shrubs, or any other vegetation) or in any manner change the appearance of the common areas and facilities or limited common areas and facilities without the written consent of the Association being first obtained.

In the event that the Unit owner should fail to landscape or reasonably maintain the landscaping within the fenced area, the Association shall have the right and obligation to perform such landscaping or landscaping maintenance and the costs attributable to such work shall be individually assessed and levied against that Unit owner and collected in the same manner as an assessment levied pursuant to Article VII, Section 7.2, Subsection (f) of this Declaration.

- (p) Approval Procedures. For the review of any proposed modifications, plantings, landscaping, fencing, or other changes or additions requested pursuant to this Article VI, the Unit owner must first submit a written proposal to the Association or to an Architectural Control Committee established by the Association for the review of such proposals. The Association or Committee may request additional documentation, plans, drawings, specifications, or other information from the Unit Owner as deemed necessary for the proper consideration of such proposal. The Association, through the Board of Directors or Architectural Committee, shall have the obligation to answer in writing any written request by a Unit owner for approval of a proposed modification, planting, fencing, or other change or addition within thirty days after all requested documentation has been submitted to the Board or to the Committee. Failure to provide such written answer within such time shall constitute consent by the Association to the proposed modification, planting, landscaping, fencing, or other change or addition. The Association, Architectural Committee, and Board of Directors shall not be liable to any contractor, subcontractor, or materialman or to any person sustaining personal injury or property damage, for any claim arising from or in connection with such modification, planting, landscaping, fencing, or other approved change or addition.

- (q) Abatement/Removal of Violations. The Association or its duly authorized agent may enter upon any of the common areas or limited common areas to abate or remove, using such measures as may be reasonably necessary, any structure, planting, thing, or condition which violates this Declaration, any Supplemental Declaration, the Bylaws, the Design Guidelines, or the Rules and Regulations, or which the Association reasonably deems to be a nuisance or a hazard to any structure or person. All costs incurred, including reasonable attorney's fees, shall be assessed against the violator as an assessment levied pursuant to Article VII, Section 7.2, Subsection (f) of this Declaration.
- (r) General. No improvements, exterior alteration of existing improvements (including painting), placement or posting of any object or thing on the exterior of any Unit, other structure, Common Elements, or Limited Common Elements (e.g. signs, antennae, clotheslines, playground equipment, temporarily or permanently installed basketball goals, pools, propane tanks, lighting, temporary structures, sculptures, yard decorations, and artificial vegetation), planting or removal of landscaping, or installation or removal of any irrigation system or equipment, shall take place except in compliance with this Article, this Declaration, including the Use Restrictions, the Design Guidelines, the Rules and Regulations, and with the written approval of the Association or the Architectural Committee as provided herein.

Section 47C-2-115. Unit Number _____ shall be used initially as a model and/or sales office. Declarant shall have the right to (1) relocate, discontinue and reestablish within the Condominium any such offices or models until all Units have been conveyed to Unit Owners other than the Declarant; and (2) change the use of such offices or models, provided that they shall be used only for sales purposes or models. The total number of such offices or models maintained at any time by the Declarant shall not exceed the number set out above, and 6.3 Hazardous or Unlawful Use or Waste. Nothing shall be done to or kept in any Unit or on or about the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements that will increase any rate of, or result in the cancellation of, insurance maintained with respect to the Condominium, or that would be in violation of any law, or that will result in the commitment of waste (damage, abuse or destruction) to or in any Unit or the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements.

6.4 Alterations to Units. A Unit may be altered pursuant to the provisions of N.C.G.S. Section 47C-2-111 and pursuant to this Declaration. The boundaries between adjoining Units may be relocated pursuant to N.C.G.S. Section 47C-2-112.

No Unit Owner or Occupant, except Declarant during the Declarant Control Period, shall alter or construct anything upon or remove anything from the Common Elements or paint, decorate, landscape or adorn any portion of the Common Elements without the prior written consent of the Board.

6.6 Rules and Regulations. In addition to these covenants, Rules and Regulations not in conflict herewith and supplementary hereto may be promulgated and amended from time to time by the Board or the Association, as more fully provided in the By-Laws.

6.7 Covenants To Run with Land. Each unit Owner and Occupant shall be subject to all restrictions, conditions and covenants of this declaration, all of which shall be deemed to be covenants running with the land binding every person having any interest in the Property and inuring to the benefit of all such persons.

6.8 No boats, trailers, bicycles scooters, baby carriages, or similar vehicles or toys or other personal articles shall be allowed to stand in any of the Common Elements.

6.9 Each Unit Owner shall keep such Owner's Unit in a good state of preservation and cleanliness and shall not sweep or throw or permit to be swept or thrown therefrom, or from the doors or windows thereof, any dirt or other substance.

6.10 Suitable window and door treatments must be installed by each Unit Owner in all windows and glass doors of his Unit and must be maintained in such windows and doors at all times. All drapes, curtains, or other similar materials hung in windows and doors in any manner so as to be visible from the outside of any building erected upon any lot shall be of a white or neutral background unless approved in writing by the Board of Directors of the Association.
